

11 May 2017

To the members of the Komala Party of Iranian Kurdistan, KPIK

Dear friends, dear comrades,

As you convene for your 15th party Congress, I am very pleased to send you all my warm, fraternal greetings and very best wishes of success in your deliberations.

The Socialist International remains deeply committed to the cause of the Kurdish people and supports your party's struggle for democracy, freedom and human rights, as it does to the fight against terrorism. In all these endeavours you can count on the solidarity of the Socialist International.

Looking forward to learning the outcome of your important debates and decisions, please accept my sincere regards.

Luis Ayala
Secretary General